BUILDER MEMBER OF THE YEAR

ROSS BUILT is awarded the 2025 Southern Living Custom Builder Program Builder Member of the Year Award for excellence in design, construction, and industry professionalism.

Ross Built is a boutique custom home builder in West Central Florida, deeply rooted in the Anna Maria Island community. After gaining valuable experience with Fortune 100 companies across the U.S., Greg and Lee Ross returned home in 2002, committed to raising their sons, Jake and Andrew, in the same tight-knit community Greg cherished growing up. In 2006, they founded Ross Built with a shared vision to combine exceptional craftsmanship with a personalized, client-focused experience. Today, Lee continues to lead the company alongside her two sons, Jake and Andrew. Both grew up in the business and are now integral to its operations, as the family remains devoted to honoring Greg's legacy. Known for its meticulous attention to detail, strong client relationships, and exceptional team of skilled tradespeople, Ross Built is committed to maintaining the high standards and values on which it was founded.

The SLCBP has changed the trajectory of our company. The friendships we have made, the support we have received and the connection with the industry leading vendors has had a profound impact on our growth, how we run our company, and our end products are the best in our market. We love our family at Southern Living!” - Lee Ross
